

SAFETY

Is the first consideration at this bank. It is the consideration which appeals strongest to every depositor. It is the consideration which has MADE this bank what it is. And it is the consideration which should prompt YOU to bank with US

THE
First National Bank of Nogales,
NOGALES, ARIZONA
Assets Over $2,000,000.00

New Fall Stock
—OF—
Blankets and Comforts, Mattresses and Beds
We Are Agent
For the "Bain Wagon" and "U. S. Wind Mills."
Our Prices Are Right
"See us First"
GEO. B. MARSH, Inc.
LOUIS LOOS, MANAGER

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.

We handle a complete line of Lumber, Sash Doors, Lime, Cement, Douglas Plaster, Corrugated Iron, Builders' Hardware, in fact everything to build with.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.,

T. M. FORD, Manager
Successors to Nogales Lumber Co.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE,

Phone 671 Morley Avenue P. O. Box C.
NOGALES, - - - ARIZONA.

To the Public:

We offer exceptionally liberal inducements to those who like to do their trading at or near home and avoid delays.

Best Quality, New and Selected Stock, the largest on the border, Purest Drugs most efficient clerks and prompt personal attention to all phone, mail and express orders.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED.

A trial solicited from new customers as we are able to hold all our old patrons with above tactics in our business.

Respectfully,

C. H. HECTOR, MANAGER.

LOCAL NEWS.

Attorney M. C. Little is back from Hermosillo, where he had been on legal business.

Sheriff W. S. McKnight is out in the eastern part of the county rounding up trial jurors.

Robert Ogle, of The First National Bank is back from his vacation spent on the coast.

The Eleventh Annual State Fair will be held at Phoenix from Nov. 15th to Nov. 20th.

Special Deputy Collector of Customs Mason, has this week been in Tucson on official business.

Inspector James B. Mix, after enjoying a two weeks' vacation, is again on duty, at the customs house.

Wednesday and Thursday Pete Etchell was in the city from the Mansfield camp, near Patagonia.

Grant Lewis, miner and prospector, is back from Tucson. Wednesday he returned to Patagonia.

Wednesday Ranger John Cunningham brought in from Tubac a Mexican accused of branding another man's calf.

Manager Joaquin Legarra of The Red House, returned home yesterday from Tucson, where he had been on business.

Benj. J. Jones, one of Steinfield's field lieutenants, has for a couple days been here in the interest of his big Tucson firm.

The trial of the Proctor boys, accused of murdering Thomas Elias, their father-in-law, will come up in Superior Court, October 18th.

County Treasurer R. R. Earhart's new cottage on Elm street, just across the street from Dr. Purdy's residence is being pushed to completion.

Carlos Rivera, manager of the Sonora Bank and Trust Company, has moved into his new residence on the hill east of the Mexican custom house.

H. W. Squires, the mining man, has been here several days this week from Tucson. Mr. Squires owns valuable mining property in the Altar district.

Wednesday Duke Parker of San Rafael valley, purchased a Ford auto from Karns Bros., Inc. Attorney Zalyva purchased a Maxwell from the Nogales Auto Co.

Dr. John Magruder, many years engaged in the mining game in Sonora, is here from Minas Prietas, where he has for some time past been making his headquarters.

The Nogales Jersey Farm blue ribbon herd of Jerseys, easily won the sweep stakes at the Santa Cruz county fair last week. Trust Superintendent Meek to "bring the bacon home."

Tuesday Messrs. Beckford Kibbey, Jr., Brisco Kibbey, Fred. Gilbert and John Henderson went south en route to Magdalena and the Alamo ranch owned by the Alamo Cattle Company.

Monday the embargo on arms and ammunition to Mexico was again put in force by the United States and now all vehicles crossing the international line are being searched by the border patrol.

Mark Manning of Sonoita has for a couple of days been in the city, having come down to have a "bum" knee fixed. Mark got hurt while attempting to crank Attorney E. R. Purdum's auto, at Sonoita.

Max Marks, everybody in Sonora knows Max, has for a few days past been a business visitor in Nogales from Hermosillo, where for many years he has been assistant manager of Cohn's Bros.'s hotel.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Montezuma building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty. adv.

Louis Koller, the well known mining man who owns valuable mining prospects in the Patagonias, was a visitor here Thursday. He said his mine looks good. Robert E. Lee is interested with Mr. Koller.

Alex. Carpena, the popular haberdasher, after two months' pleasure visit on the Pacific coast with his wife and little daughter, returned home Monday. He reports having had a fine outing. In Los Angeles Mr. Carpena met many old-time friends from Nogales and Sonora.

Today J. R. Halstead of the J. D. Halstead Lumber Co., will go to Tucson to meet his father who will pass through on his way east. From Tucson Mr. Halstead will go to Bisbee on business for his big lumber company.

Alex. Summerville, efficient pattern-maker for Roy & Titcomb, Inc., on his vacation in California, writes that he is having a fine time at the San Francisco exposition. Frisco is Alex's home town. His mother lives there.

Bradford Duncan, Deputy United States marshal, was a visitor in Nogales on Wednesday of this week, on official business. He was chaperoned around by City Marshal Dumbauld, who is one of Marshal Dillon's deputies.

Yesterday Rodolfo Vasquez, the mining engineer, formerly of Nogales, now a resident of Los Angeles, arrived in the city. Mr. Vasquez is interested in Santa Cruz county mining property, located a short distance from Nogales.

Harry Lawton, general freight agent for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, accompanied by Passenger Agent Jackson, went to El Paso on company business last Tuesday. The gentlemen make their headquarters at Empalme.

Tuesday Superintendent Williams of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at Tucson, was a visitor in Nogales, where he was met by his private car. Supt. Williams made the trip over the line from Tucson by motor car.

The exhibits at the Santa Cruz county fair last week will be taken to the state fair by Mark Manning, state fair commissioner from this county. Dollars to doughnut we grab a bunch of blue ribbons, especially if Mark goes after 'em.

Monday the trainload of garbanzos, held on the Mexican side of the line by the Mexican authorities, pending the payment of customs duties, were released and brought across the line. They are being shipped to New York City.

Julius Kunde, prosperous stockraiser from the San Rafael valley, was here Wednesday for the purpose of paying his taxes. Julius is one of the oldest, best known stockraisers in the county, having resided in the San Rafael valley many years.

Fred. Carothers, superintendent of the graphite mines in Sonora, returned Wednesday from Colorado Springs, where he had been to visit relatives and friends. He is on his way south to his company's properties, near Minas Prietas.

Wednesday Kempton & O'Neill the assayers and ore buyers, received a ton of bonanza copper ore from the Goodview mine north of the city owned by N. A. Young. The mine is looking good and prospects of making a big dividend-payer, are said to be excellent.

Sam Heslet, of the Sultana Mine in Sonora, a short distance west from Carbo, returned the forepart of the week from a flying visit to Los Angeles to see Mrs. Heslet and Master Desmond who now make the city of angels their home. Sam's going back to the mine.

Collector of Customs Hardy will return next week from Washington and New York where he has been since the seventh of the month, on government business, the most important of which was the meeting at New York of the collectors of U. S. customs.

Supervisors George W. Parker and his brother Duke, who recently sold a big bunch of high-grade native cattle, were visitors in Nogales a couple of days this week from their fine ranches in the San Rafael valley. The gentlemen are brothers of Mrs. Frank J. Duffy.

American Consul Hostetter, for a long time stationed at Hermosillo, passed through Nogales Wednesday on his way to the States. Hostetter has been of great assistance to many Americans and other foreigners in Sonora during the present unpleasantness in that country.

C. C. Rountree, of Minas Prietas, accompanied by his son Ben, last Thursday left for El Paso. From there they will go to the coast to attend the expositions. Col. Bob Cunningham, of Torres, where for a long time he has been the representative of a number of mining companies operating in that part of the country, came to Nogales with Mr. Rountree. The colonel will remain here indefinitely.

R. R. Redwine, popular Southern Pacific conductor, was a visitor in the city the forepart of the week, from Tucson, on private business. Tuesday he accompanied the Nogales Elks to Tucson, as chairman of the entertainment committee, which royally entertained the antlered herd from Nogales.

Last Saturday and the day before, A. L. Paschall, farm advisors for Cochise and Santa Cruz counties, was in attendance at the Santa Cruz county fair at Sonoita. In a large measure the success of the fair is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Paschall, who in many ways assisted the management.

R. A. Davidson, of New York, member of the engineering firm of Cole, Ives & Davidson, is a visitor in the city. His firm has the contract for building the great power plant for the International Gas Company of this city. He is here to inspect the work which is being done by Superintendent Richards of New York.

The city council held an interesting business session last Monday night, Mayor Mix presiding. Another meeting will be held next Monday evening. At last Monday evening's meeting, Clerk Budge was instructed to notify property owners on the west side of Grand avenue to immediately put in cement side walks.

W. T. Roath has purchased the Frank Irvine place, corner of Elm street and Sonoita avenue. The new owner will at once commence the erection of two brick cottages. Mr. Roath is rapidly becoming one of our big real estate owners. He believes in Nogales' future and is backing his judgement with hard American dollars.

The average tax levy for all purposes in Arizona for 1915 is $1.6215 on each $100 valuation, according to figures compiled by the state tax commission. The commission made public the fact that $25,510.34 is the amount of taxes to be paid by the private car companies for the year 1915. This is to be collected by the state treasurer.

Captain John Cady of Patagonia, accompanied by Mr. Basil Dillon Woon, until recently city editor of the Nogales Daily Herald, spent a couple of days here this week from Patagonia. Mr. Woon will shortly depart for Mexico on private business. Captain Cady is making arrangements to publish his book on Arizona history.

Mr. Bill Hunter of Fort Sumner, New Mexico, an old-time personal friend of Mr. Land, vice president of the Santa Cruz Valley Bank & Trust Company, will tomorrow ship a trainload of cattle from Calabasas. The cattle were bought from the Sorrells brothers and several other Santa Cruz county stock raisers. They will be shipped to New Mexico pastures.

Mr. Clay, the Hermosillo mining man, arrived from the south Tuesday evening, accompanied by Mr. Harry J. Smith, the banker, and C. C. Rountree, the Minas Prietas merchant. Mr. Smith was on his way to El Paso, where he had been called by a telegram announcing the death, last Saturday, of his father. Mr. Rountree has gone to Los Angeles.

Columbus Day, Oct. 12th being a legal holiday, the day was observed in Nogales by the closing of county and city offices, the banks, postoffices and business houses. In the evening there was music in the Nogales, Sonora plaza, by Urbalejo's band, in honor of the occasion. A large crowd from the American side of the line attended the concert.

Friends and admirers of Congressman Carl Hayden were greatly disappointed because he did not attend the county fair at Sonoita last week. Congressman Hayden has a host of friends in Santa Cruz county. Many went to the fair expecting to meet Arizona's able representative in Congress. He has promised to visit Nogales in the near future.

The following local Elks are in a measure responsible for the black eye conferred upon Earl Hammick Tuesday night by Lodge No. 353, B. P. O. E.: J. D. Halstead, Charles L. Hardy, Robert E. Lee, Charley V. Fowler, W. D. Hart, Dr. L. J. Prober, Frank D. Wilkey, Harry Hines, John Jund, Walter Holt, Sheriff McKnight, R. E. Pete, E. L. Mix, Frank Sullivan and E. D. Miller. Earl says he bears the boys no malice.

Manager Ferd VanMourick of the Sonora News Company, who with Mrs. VanMourick and their two bright children returned home from the coast, reports having had a most enjoyable trip. During Manager VanMourick's absence from Nogales, Wm. Cavanaugh has been in charge of the big store on Morley avenue.

Tuesday Sheriff McKnight, Walter Holt, R. E. Pete and Don C. Franklin motored to Tucson, on pleasure bent. Messrs. McKnight, Pete and Holt to attend the Elk's session and Mr. Franklin to see old friends and acquaintances. They returned home Wednesday well pleased with their visit to the ancient and honorable pueblo.

Accompanied by fifteen Nogales Elks, Earl D. Hammick last Tuesday went to Tucson to join the noble antlered herd, 385, B. P. O. E. With the exception of one black and blue eye and other minor injuries, Earl escaped injury. He says he got the worth of his money, and then some. About one hundred and fifty Elks witnessed ceremonies, after which a royal feast was enjoyed by all. The Nogales Bills report having had a fine time.

Suit has been filed in the United States district court at Tucson, for the condemnation of fifty-four cases of cannon ammunition, shipped from Juarez, Chi., some time ago, for the military authorities in Nogales, Sonora. The ammunition which is shrapnel for eighty millimeter guns, is valued at between three and four thousand dollars. After the shells were found in a car manifested as "beans," it was seized by Collector Hardy, who later released the beans.

Yesterday Robt. Mitchell, the mining man, returned from Los Angeles, where he had been called last week by the death of his wife, a most estimable lady who passed away on October 8th, after a lingering illness. Deceased was 46 years of age. Besides the grief-stricken husband six children are left to mourn her untimely death. They are Mrs. Anna McHenry, Mrs. Robt. Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Knight, Mrs. W. E. Fowler, Miss Gladys Mitchell and Master John Mitchell.

Henry Plaul, superintendent of the Sonora Exploration and Mining company, the principal offices of which are in New York, returned to Nogales Thursday from the east where he had been to confer with officers of his company. Just as soon as conditions in the San Xavier district, Sonora, warrant, Mr. Plaul says work on the Uvalama mines owned by the company will be resumed and high-trade silver ore for which the property is famous, will be shipped to the United States, through Nogales.

The first county fair to be held by the Santa Cruz County Fair Association at Sonoita, on Friday and Saturday of last week was a great success in all respects except financially. Those who worked night and day to make the fair a success deserve unstinted praise. The dry farm exhibits would have been a credit to any county in Arizona, every one being worthy of a blue ribbon. Hundreds of people from all over the county and points outside attended the fair and the grand ball last Saturday night. All report having had a fine time.

Hon. Oscar Ashburn, of the Pennsylvania Ranch, (Monkey Springs) was a business visitor at the county seat the forepart of the week, having motored in from his great stock ranch, which, by-the-way, is considered one of the most valuable in southern Arizona. Last Saturday Mr. Ashburn delivered to Godieka & Franklin, the Texas cattle buyers, a thousand head of white-face cattle. The cattle were shipped from Sonoita to Texas. No finer stock ever left this section of the state. As usual, Mr. Ashburn received the top market price.

Harry McIntyre has sold all his interest in the Nogales Steam Laundry to Mr. L. M. Raines, one of the original owners of the laundry. In future Mr. Raines will personally manage the business which is one of the best in the city. It is Mr. Raines' attention to keep the business up to its present high standard. In order to do so he desires patrons to file at the company's office any complaints they may have regarding service, etc. Mr. McIntyre will devote his entire time to his mining interests in Sonora, which need his personal attention. He will continue to reside in Nogales.